Color key

- Roll Call, state bills; also "disagreed" in results
- Filed or Fake, Congress bills, highlights
- Landslide, local items; also "agreed" in results
- Primary buttons and ink

Notes

- No red or blue for agree or disagree, so nothing reads as a party.
- Bills and their outcomes are real. Names, scores, streaks and percentages are sample data; [brackets] are placeholders.
- Type: Newsreader for headings, system font for everything else.

The Today tab and the Roll Call game

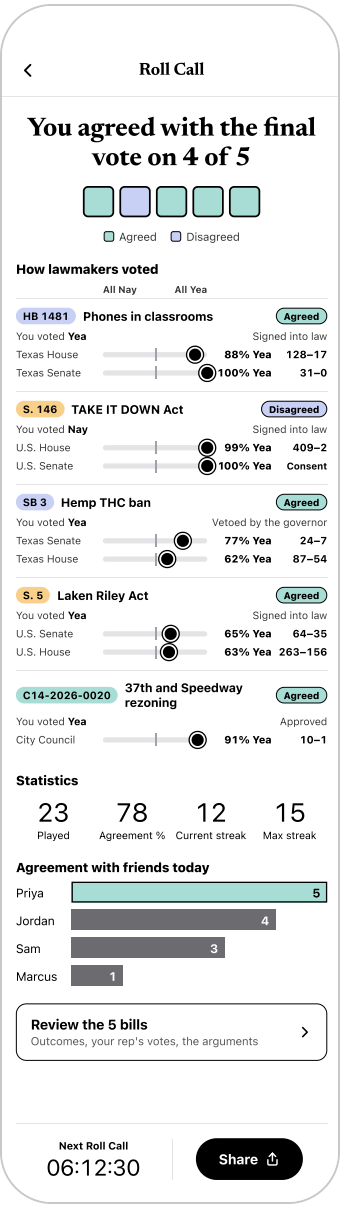

Today

The daily agenda: three games, each card with a tear-off stub, plus a leaderboard teaser.

Roll Call: voting

Five real bills from Congress, Texas and Austin. Tap Yea or Nay, or swipe.

Roll Call: results (full scroll)

Your agreement, then how lawmakers actually voted on each bill (real tallies), stats, friends, share.

1. Where do you vote?

ZIP code sets state, county and city. Ballots mix Congress, statehouse and local.

2. What do you care about?

Pick at least 3 topics to weight your daily ballots.

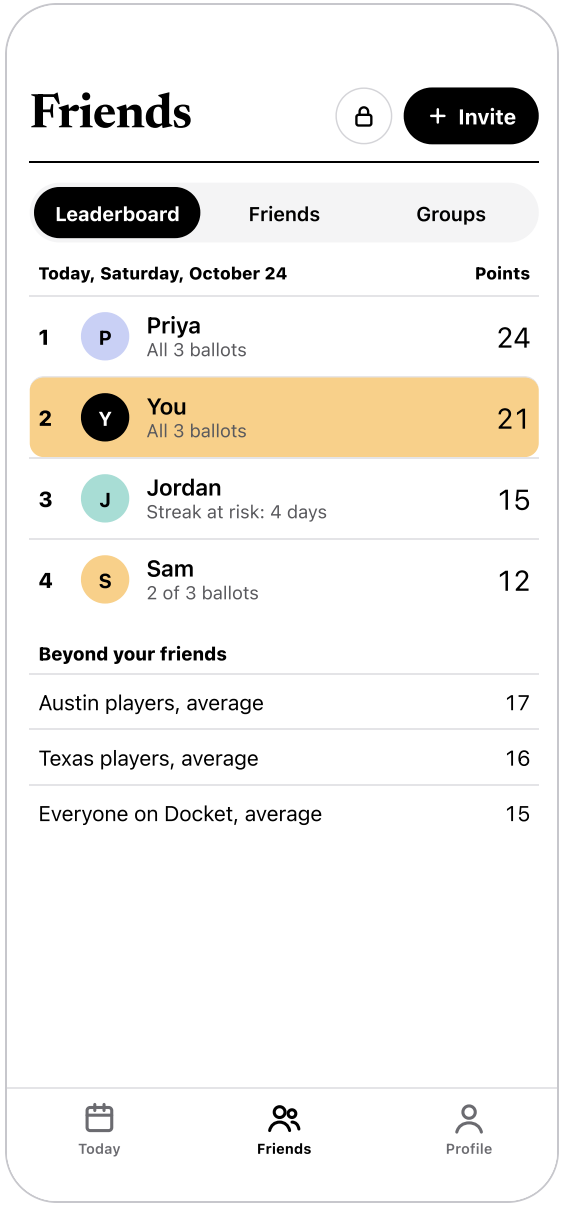

3. Play with friends

Find friends, send an invite link, daily reminder, vote sharing.

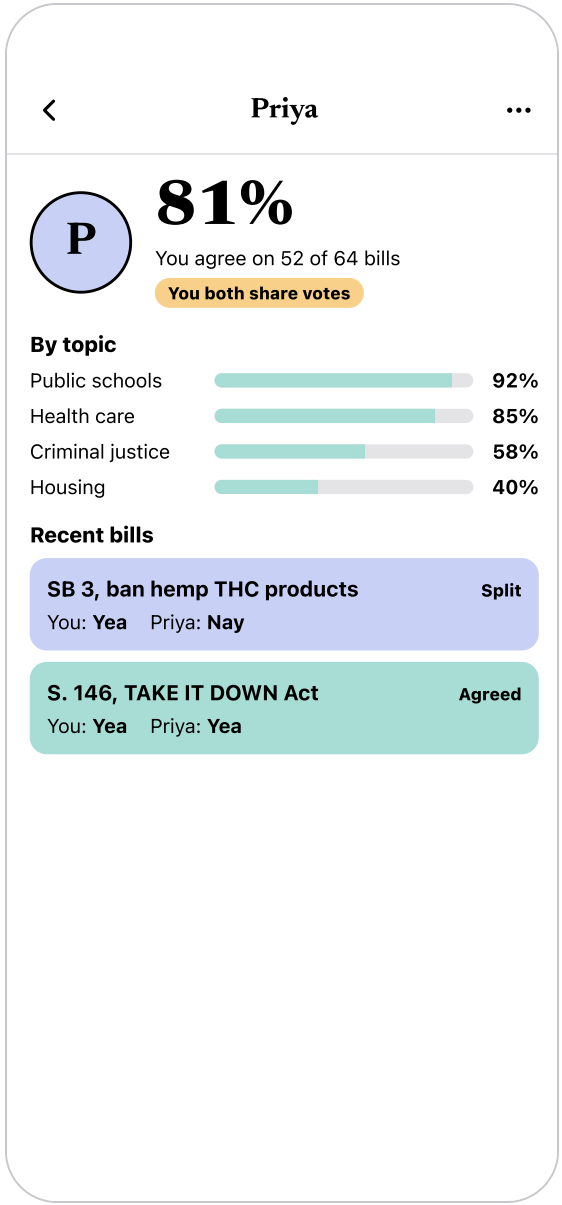

Friends and groups

Friends tab, friend profile and groups

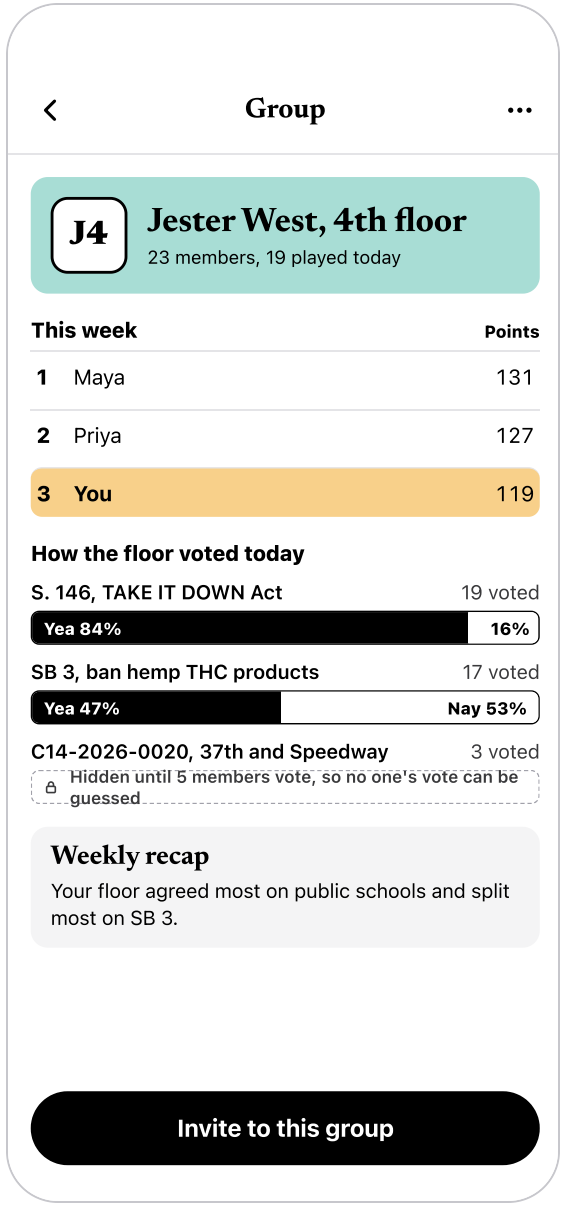

Friends tab

Leaderboard, Friends and Groups. Requests, agreement %, and comparisons beyond your friends.

Friend profile

Agreement overall and by topic. Per-bill votes only show when both friends share votes.

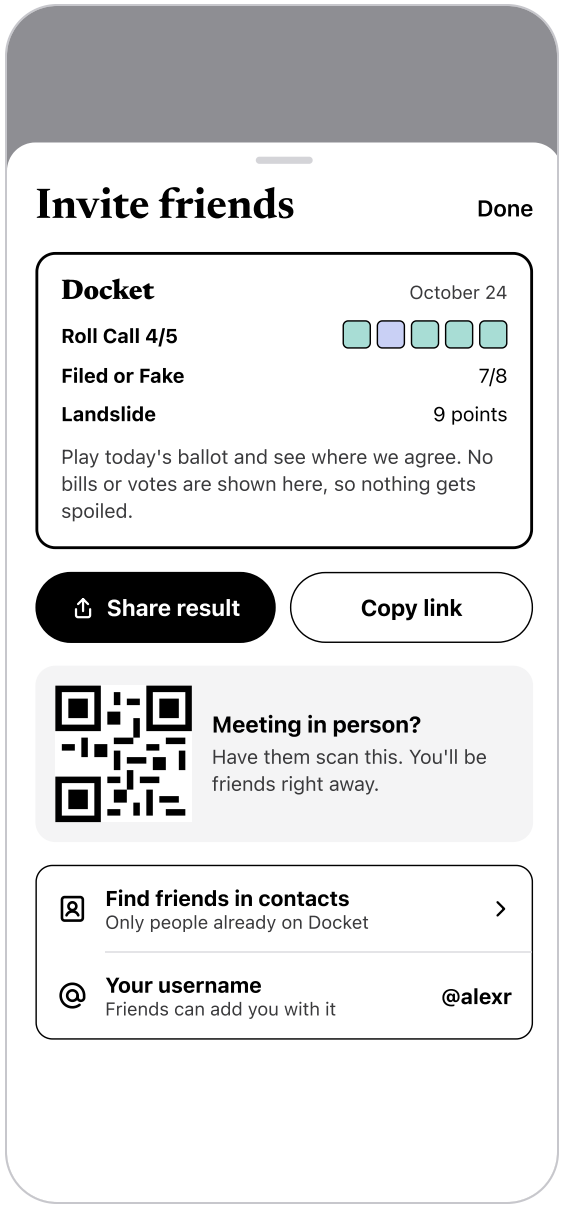

Group

Weekly leaderboard and anonymous Yea/Nay splits, hidden until 5 members vote.
